DIRECTV 4K—Requirements/FAQs

Why is it recommended to connect your Genie to a non-4K TV?

- The Genie (HR54) itself cannot display 4K content and thus was designed to connect to a non-4K TV. 4K content can be viewed via a DIRECTV 4K Ready TV or a 4K TV connected to a Genie Mini (C61K).
 - If you have only one TV which is 4K—or all your TVs are 4K—please expect the following:
 - In one of your rooms, you will be charged for 2 rooms as your Genie HR54 and DIRECTV 4K client (either DIRECTV 4K Ready TV or 4K Genie Mini) must both be active. Professional installation is required in this scenario.

There is a fee of $7/mo. for each receiver and/or Genie Mini /DIRECTV Ready TV/Device on your account. In the event the DIRECTV 4K Ready TV is the only television connected to DIRECTV service, there will be an additional charge of $7/mo. Advanced Receiver Service fee also applies.

I already have DIRECTV 4K VOD, how do I get DIRECTV 4K channels (104, 105 and 106)?

- If you already have 4K VOD, you need an HR54 Genie and the SELECT™ Package or above to access DIRECTV 4K channels.
 - To find out your receiver model, press the “MENU” button, navigate down to “Settings & Help” and select “Settings”. The receiver information will be displayed. If either HR34 or HR44 is listed, you will need to upgrade your receiver to an HR54.
- If you have to upgrade your receiver, a professional installer may have to come to the house, or DIRECTV may be able to drop ship the required hardware to you, depending upon your system setup.

Where can I get a DIRECTV 4K Ready TV?

- There is a list of DIRECTV 4K Ready TV manufacturers listed on directv.com/dtv4kready.

Can a DIRECTV customer purchase a 4K TV that is not DIRECTV 4K Ready and view DIRECTV 4K content?

- Yes, but ONLY if they connect a 4K Genie Mini (model C61K or later) to their compatible non-DIRECTV 4K Ready TV.

Is there a room minimum in order to get DIRECTV 4K channels?

- There is not a minimum requirement, but if a one-room customer chooses to get DIRECTV 4K service, they will be charged for 2 receivers because both a Genie and 4K client (DIRECTV 4K Ready TV or 4K Genie Mini) must be active to view 4K.

How do I order a DIRECTV 4K movie on DIRECTV 4K channel 105?

Set top box:

DIRECTV 4K—Requirements/FAQs

How much 4K content can I watch simultaneously in my home?

- The HR54 supports one 4K channel stream at a time, but there are different things you can do simultaneously on the HR54. Here are three examples:
 - If you're recording 4K content from one of the 4k channels on one TV, you can watch a previously-recorded show from a 4K channel at the same time, and also watch recorded 4K VOD content on a second 4K TV.
 - If you're watching a show on a 4k channel, you can record what you're viewing at the same time.
 - If you're playing recorded 4K content (whether you recorded it from a 4K channel or On Demand), you can simultaneously record one 4K show from one of the 4K channels.

Can I record DIRECTV 4K channel programming on my Genie?

- Yes, you can. And you can watch those recordings in 4K.

How many 4K programs can I store on my Genie?

- It depends on how much free space is available on your hard drive. Actual recording capacity varies based on programming being recorded.

Do I need to download all my DIRECTV 4K content?

- For 4K VOD movies, you have to wait for content to download. But with DIRECTV 4K channel 105, there's always something to watch, 24/7.

Do I need a broadband-connected HD DVR to get DIRECTV 4K programming?

- No, you do not need a broadband-connected HD DVR to access DIRECTV 4K channels, however you will need to be connected for 4K installation and to access 4K VOD movies.

Limited programming available. 4K equipment, minimum programming (SELECT Package or higher), 4K account authorization and professional installation required. Other conditions apply.
